Many funds sold in the UK are grouped into sectors by the Investment Association (the trade body that represents UK investment managers), to help investors to compare funds with broadly similar characteristics. This Fund is classified in the IA Mixed Investment 0%-35% Shares Sector.

Status

The Fund operates under the Investment Funds Sourcebook (FUND) where applicable and the Collective Investment Schemes Sourcebook (COLL) of the Financial Conduct Authority. The Fund is an authorised unit trust scheme under Section 237 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and is a Non UCITS Retail Scheme (NURS) as defined in the COLL rules.

The unit types associated with each unit class are disclosed in the Comparative Tables on pages 6 to 8.

This document is for informational purposes only and is not investment advice. Market and exchange rate movements can cause the value of an investment to fall as well as rise, and you may get back less than originally invested. We recommend you discuss any investment decisions with a financial adviser, particularly if you are unsure whether an investment is suitable. Jupiter is unable to provide investment advice. Current tax levels and reliefs will depend on your individual circumstances and are subject to change in the future. All of the Fund's expenses are charged to capital, which can reduce the potential for capital growth. This has had the effect of increasing the distributions paid on an annualised basis on L-Class Units by up to 1.37% of the class' average Net Asset Value during the period under review (I-Class Units 0.62%, J-Class Units 0.97%) and constraining the class' capital performance to an equivalent extent. This Fund can invest more than 35% of its value in securities issued or guaranteed by an EEA state. For definitions please see the glossary at jupiteram.com. Market Review

15 months beyond the Russian invasion of Ukraine and more than three years since the start of the pandemic, markets are still reacting to the inflation resulting from two global exogenous shocks. The principal central banks were slow off the mark to realise the dangers of allowing incipient inflation to go unchecked in 2021. Once they did react in 2022, they were aggressive in raising interest rates to the point last November when the Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank and the Bank of England all deployed a very unusual full percentage point increase at one sitting. As the inflation curve subsides (but slowing at very different rates depending on national circumstances; UK inflation is proving stickier than in other countries) and worried about recessionary risks, investors have constantly been second-guessing the peak of the interest rate cycle and when interest rates will start to fall again. Volatility in asset prices has been pronounced, particularly in fixed income; that volatility is a direct result of increasingly polarised and entrenched views about future monetary policy, depending on which opinion camp has the upper hand in the argument at the time.

Policy Review

We continue actively to review the managers whose funds are owned in the Portfolio. It has been a conscious decision to resist the temptation constantly to keep changing positions. In equities we have maintained a foot in both 'value' and 'growth' styles, mitigating against the risk of being forced to make binary decisions when one style is out of favour and the other in. As it is, we have maintained a bias towards 'value' over 'growth'.

With volatile bond yields (prices move in the opposite direction to the yield), fixed income is a challenge. The Portfolio has a 35% ceiling for equities and must have a minimum of 45% in investment grade bonds; allowing for the 4.2% in gold, our fixed income exposure is 60.7%, split between experienced managers we believe are well equipped to weather the storm. No new funds were added, and none disposed of in our fixed income investments in the period.

Investment Outlook

Investors are anticipating that the current interest rate cycle is close to its peak, if not already there. The question then is, how long will interest rates plateau at elevated levels before receding. The answer to that lies in the future trend of inflation rates in the context of the principal central banks' common target of 2%. Leaving aside the natural cyclicity and volatility of global commodity prices, as an indication of the duration of inflation, economists are preoccupied with the idiosyncrasies of national labour markets as employees react to meeting the challenges of the cost-of-living crisis but where unemployment levels are still very low and job markets are tight, especially in the US and the UK.

If the past few months are anything to go by, momentum investors pursuing the latest fad have lost none of their appetite significantly to chase up share prices of a very small number of companies, having a disproportionate effect on the relevant index (e.g. in the US, the S&P500 is currently approaching all-time highs having risen 22% since October, most of which performance is attributable to only seven companies, all involved in the development of artificial intelligence).

Investing in challenging times such as these requires an open mind, remaining alert, having a well-diversified portfolio and being willing to change your mind when the facts change. They are exactly the principles we apply ourselves to managing the Jupiter Merlin Portfolios.

The Jupiter Merlin Portfolios are long-term investments; they are certainly not immune from market volatility, but they are expected to be less volatile over time, commensurate with the risk tolerance of each. With liquidity uppermost in our mind, we seek to invest in funds run by experienced managers with a blend of styles but who share our core philosophy of trying to capture good performance in buoyant markets while minimising as far as possible the risk of losses in more challenging conditions.

Risk and Reward Indicator

The Risk and Reward Indicator table demonstrates where the Fund ranks in terms of its potential risk and reward. The higher the rank the greater the potential reward but the greater the risk of losing money. It is based on past data, may change over time and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The shaded area in the table below shows the Fund's ranking on the Risk and Reward Indicator.

- The lowest category does not mean 'no risk'. Some risk will still be present in funds with a risk and reward rating of 1.
- The Fund is in this category due to the nature of its investments and previous levels of volatility (how much the value of the Fund rises and falls).

Charges

- The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment. They include the costs (less any rebates) incurred by the underlying funds held during the year.

Charges taken from the Fund over the six months (annualised) to:	31.05.23	31.05.22
Ongoing charges for L-Class Units	1.67%	1.70%
Ongoing charges for I-Class Units	0.92%	0.95%
Ongoing charges for J-Class Units	1.27%	1.40%

Notes to the Interim Financial Statements

1. Significant Accounting Policies

The interim financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost basis as modified by the revaluation of investments, in compliance with the Financial Conduct Authority's Collective Investment Schemes Sourcebook. They have been prepared in accordance with FRS 102 and the Statement of Recommended Practice for Financial Statements of UK Authorised Funds issued by The Investment Management Association (now referred to as the Investment Association) in May 2014 (the 2014 SORP) and amended in June 2017.

Unless otherwise stated, all other accounting policies applied are consistent with those of the annual financial statements for the year ended 30 November 2022 and are described in those financial statements.

2. Financial Instruments

In pursuing its investment objectives, the Fund invests in other funds, which in turn, will invest in a number of financial instruments. The Fund, and the underlying funds, can also invest in securities and other investments and hold cash balances, short term fixed deposits, bank overdrafts and debtors and creditors that arise directly from its operations, for example, in respect of sales and purchases awaiting settlement, amounts receivable from issues and payable for cancellations and debtors for accrued revenue.

The Fund may enter into derivative transactions, the purpose of which will only be for efficient management of the Fund and not for investment purposes.

The Fund has little exposure to counterparty, liquidity and cash flow risk. These risks are not significant at current levels. The main risks it faces from its financial instruments are market price, credit, foreign currency and interest rate risk. The Manager reviews policies for managing these risk in pursuance of the Investment Objective and Policy as set out on page 2. These risks remain unchanged from the prior year.

Adherence to investment guidelines and to investment and borrowing powers set out in the Trust Deed, Scheme Particulars and in the rules of the Collective Investment Schemes Sourcebook mitigates the risk of excessive exposure to any particular type of security or issuer. Further information on the investment portfolio is set out in the Investment Report and Portfolio Statement.

All Unit Types

The relevant information required by a corporate unitholder is as follows:

■ Franked investment income	0.00%
■ Annual payment (non-foreign element)	100.00%

Equalisation applies only to units purchased during the distribution period (Group 2 units). It is the average amount of revenue included in the purchase price of all Group 2 units and is refunded to holders of these units as a return of capital. Being capital, it is not liable to Income Tax but must be deducted from the cost of units for Capital Gains Tax purposes.

Advice to Unitholders

In recent years, investment related scams have become increasingly sophisticated and difficult to spot. We are therefore warning all our unitholders to be cautious so that they can protect themselves and spot the warning signs.

Fraudsters will often:

- contact you out of the blue
- apply pressure to invest quickly
- downplay the risks to your money
- promise tempting returns that sound too good to be true
- say that they are only making the offer available to you
- ask you to not tell anyone else about it

You can avoid investment scams by:

- Rejecting unexpected offers – Scammers usually cold call but contact can also come by email, post, word of mouth or at a seminar. If you have been offered an investment out of the blue, chances are it's a high risk investment or a scam.
- Checking the FCA Warning List – Use the FCA Warning List to check the risks of a potential investment. You can also search to see if the firm is known to be operating without proper FCA authorisation.
- Getting impartial advice – Before investing get impartial advice and don't use an adviser from the firm that contacted you.

If you are suspicious, report it:

- You can report the firm or scam to the FCA by contacting their Consumer Helpline on 0800 111 6768 or using their online reporting form.
- If you have lost money in a scam, contact Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040 or www.actionfraud.police.uk
